

ENTRIES FOR HORSE SHOW.

A FINE LOT OF ANIMALS WILL BE EXHIBITED AT FAIRMOUNT PARK.

Complete List, Together With the Daily Programme—Society People Who Will Occupy Boxes—Prize for the Best Turnout on the Infeld.

Everything is in readiness for the big fancy horse show at Fairmount park next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The entries closed last night at 6 o'clock, and there are 335 in the various classes.

The event promises to be a brilliant one from a society standpoint. The following well known people have secured boxes: Captain W. S. Tough, Robert Gillham, Mrs. Ed. R. Zera, A. E. Stillwell, G. S. Moshier, Judge J. McPherson, K. B. Armour, E. P. Pratt, L. B. Moore, Jr., National Bank of Commerce, Mr. J. K. Cravens and E. C. Lewis, of Chicago.

Robert Keith yesterday offered a $1000 check to the Infeld to the owner of the best turnout found standing in the infeld of the arena on Thursday afternoon.

No entrance is necessary, and the award will be made about 4 o'clock, when a judge will be selected to go over and tie a blue ribbon on the rig of his choice.

Thursday afternoon will be Kansas City or ladies' day, and as the attendance will be very large, the award will be very interesting and probably a surprise to the winner.

The show will begin Tuesday, September 2, at 2:30 o'clock, with a grand parade of all the stock. In the evening there will also be a grand dinner.

On Wednesday afternoon there will be a special parade of Shetland ponies, and in the evening a special saddle horse show. Thursday is ladies' day and in the evening there is the special coachman's prize. Friday the big auction sale occurs. The special features every afternoon and evening will be exhibitions by Mrs. Maranette and her saddlers, jumpers and hunters; by the pacing dog sport, and by Artist Monroe, the famous world's fair saddler, and his rider, Jeff Bridgford. There will be band music, both afternoon and evening.
